

Privacy Policy: Phillipsons Financial Planning

Phillipsons Financial Planning Pty Ltd is committed to protecting the privacy of your personal information. Below is some information about how your personal information will be handled by us.

Collecting your personal information

Phillipsons Financial Planning Pty Ltd, an Australian Financial Services Licensee, collects your personal information for a variety of purposes, including providing you with the financial services that you have requested (such as providing you with financial advice), managing your financial adviser's relationship with you and contacting you about products and services in which you may be interested. Phillipsons Financial Planning Pty Ltd may also be required to collect your personal information pursuant to legislation and regulatory requirements.

If the personal information requested by Phillipsons Financial Planning Pty Ltd is not provided, your financial adviser may not be able to provide you with financial services, including providing you with financial advice that is appropriate to your investment needs, objectives and financial circumstances.

Using and disclosing your personal information

Your personal information may be used and disclosed by Phillipsons Financial Planning Pty Ltd for the purposes outlined above and for related purposes.

The types of service providers to whom Phillipsons Financial Planning Pty Ltd may provide your personal information are:

- other financial advisers and organisations involved in providing the financial services you have requested (which may include ongoing services) such as fund managers who assist us in providing financial advice and paraplanners
- insurance providers, superannuation trustees and product issuers in connection with the provision to you of the financial services you have requested
- organisations that assist in operating a financial planning business, such as those that provide administrative, financial, accounting, insurance, research, legal, computer or other business services
- your representatives or service providers, such as your accountant, solicitor, tax agent, stockbroker or bank
- organisations involved in a business restructure or a transfer of all or part of the assets of Phillipsons Financial Planning Pty Ltd
- government authorities and other organisations when required by law
- organisations that you have consented to your personal information being disclosed to.

Disclosing your information outside Australia

In the course of providing our services, there may be a requirement to provide certain personal information to recipients who reside outside Australia. This is specifically the case where we are arranging international investments with brokers, share registries and fund managers who do not reside in Australia. In such cases, we will notify you of the requirement to disclose your personal information to these recipients prior to making such disclosure and at all times will make every effort to ensure that these organisations adhere to Australian Privacy Principles.

Types of personal information that we collect

The types of information that we collect and hold about you could include:

- ID information, such as your name, postal or email address, telephone numbers, and date of birth
- other contact details, such as social media handles
- financial details, such as your tax file number
- health information
- other information that we think is necessary.

Where we correct information

If we're able to correct the information, we'll let you know within five business days of deciding to do this. We'll also let the relevant third parties know as well as any others you tell us about. If there are any instances where we can't do this, then we'll let you know in writing.

Where we can't correct information

If we're unable to correct your information, we'll explain why in writing within five business days of making this decision. If you have any concerns, you can access our external dispute resolution scheme or make a complaint to the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner.

Time frame for correcting information

If we agree to correct your information, we'll do so within 30 days from when you asked us, or a longer period that's been agreed by you.

If we can't make corrections within a 30 day time frame or the agreed time frame, we must:

- let you know about the delay, the reasons for it and when we expect to resolve the matter
- ask you to agree in writing to give us more time
- let you know you can complain to our external dispute resolution scheme or the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner.

Anonymous/Pseudonym

If you have general enquiry type questions, you can choose to do this anonymously or use a pseudonym. We might not always be able to interact with you this way however, as we are often governed by strict regulations that require us to know who we're dealing with. In general, we won't be able to deal with you anonymously or where you are using a pseudonym when:

- it is impracticable
- we are required or authorised by law or a court/tribunal order to deal with you personally.

Resolving your privacy issuesHow do you make a complaint?
